

Building a Biblical World-View in Our Children

David Rountree

Deuteronomy 6:1-9

Deuteronomy 6:20-25

WHAT WE MUST TEACH OUR CHILDREN

1. The essence of living is a loving relationship with the one true God (Deut. 6:4-9, 20-23; 2 Tim. 2:24-26).

2. There is nothing better for us than to obey and worship God; it is our highest priority for satisfied existence (Deut. 6:24).

3. Righteousness in Christ is more important than all other human successes combined (Deut. 6:25; Rom. 8:28-29, 35).

4. That we live as stewards, not owners of God's possessions (Deut. 6:23; Ps. 24:1).

HOW WE MUST TEACH OUR CHILDREN

1. We must teach by the way we live (Deut. 6:1-2).

2. We must teach by what we say (Deut. 6:6-7; Eph. 4:29).

3. We teach by establishing and nurturing significant relationships (Deut. 6:7).
